1)	The strict application of the terms of this Ordinance will result in undue hardship unless the specific relief requested is granted.
2)	The alleged hardship of the owner is due to unique circumstances inherent to the subject property and has not been created by the owner.
3)	The variation, if granted, will not alter the essential character, nor be detrimental to the public welfare, of the locality.
4)	The particular physical surroundings, shape or topographical conditions of the specific property impose a particular hardship upon the owner, as distinguished from a mere inconvenience, if the strict letter of the regulations were to be carried out.

Review Section 16.0 of the Zoning Ordinance for further details on the Variation procedure and approval standards.
