Police Activity Prompts Soft Lockdown Procedures at Local Businesses and Schools

Gurnee – On Friday morning around 11:05 AM, the Gurnee Police Department was alerted to an altercation involving a weapon in the 100 block of Minthaven Court. Promptly, law enforcement personnel were dispatched to initiate an inquiry into the incident. In an abundance of caution, local businesses and schools were promptly informed and subsequently implemented soft lockdown protocols.

Police conducted a thorough search of the area, but no individuals connected to the altercation were located. Gurnee Police communicated with the affected businesses and schools, and the soft lockdown measures were lifted.
